Good morning. Please see Rob's email below and let me know if there are particular dates within those windows that do not work for you.

Katherine, re: the SSC consultation, I was told by Angela that they are still working through some issues with the State and would like to wait until they have worked through those before initiating consultation. That said, I think consultation on the SSC will likely not be initiated until the summer months at the earliest.

Thanks and once I hear from you both I will try and coordinate a time with Rob et al.
